Hello, Dear Ones,

We had quite a surprise on July 4 – a family of five young kittens on our front porch! The mama cat is a feral and lovely diffuse calico who's been hanging around since mid-winter and daddy is a young black and white guy who has finally let me pet him after months of trying.

We're sure of this parentage because three of the kittens look exactly like the dad, and mom and dad are very lovey-dovey, which is quite adorable. The other two kittens are an orange and white boy and a regular calico girl.

The thing with feral kittens, though, is that they stay wild, and grow up and have more wild kitties. Not good. But it is SO hard to tame them because they're SO skittish.

But since we had some relatives visiting, everyone was drafted to grab and stroke the kittens, in the hopes of beginning their taming. Well. Mama cat was so upset by that whole thing she moved her babies overnight. Fortunately, they were still on the porch, so I continued the taming process. It worked!

Kittens run to everyone who comes on the porch or out the door. Whew. We'll be able to find homes for them and keep the feral population somewhat under control.

Now that they're a bit older, they're exploring more. They're especially fond of the slanted drying rack Patrick uses for onions, garlic and shallots. The high end lands atop one of the houses we provide for kitties. When they reach their high goal, we can see them through the kitchen window. Adorable.

We call that "climbing the onions." It reminds me of parts of Looking for God in Messy Places by Jake Owensby, the book we're currently using in Wine and the Word.

"We can encounter God's love for us not only in the interior chambers of our own hearts but also in the depths of all that surrounds us...Wonder is the response of our whole being to that encounter with the divine, whether we meet God in the sunset, a starry sky, the Holy Sacrament, the lines of an old person's face, or the immensity of the sea."

Or in something as simple as "walking the onions." Somehow, that makes it easier to remember, and that can only be good, don't you think?

As you might guess, people can also "walk the onions." Maybe all of us should consider where and when we can do that because, as Owensby also writes, "Finding the risen Christ in our surroundings is our vocation as people of the Resurrection."

(Oh, and who would like to adopt a very tame, onion-walking kitten?)

Blessings, Pastor Robin

Facebook and In-Person Worship Available Every Sunday

Dear Friends,

Thank you so much for the wonderful send-off after church on the 15th. Your outpouring of friendship really brought tears to my eyes. I'm certainly going to miss Harborcreek Presbyterian and all you marvelous folks. You'll never know how much you have meant to me over the last 20 years.

May the Lord bless you and keep you.

Jim Watson

PARKING LOT WORSHIP FEATURED ON FACEBOOK

Who's on first? Due to Covid-19, we've had in-person, in-church worship, both masked and unmasked, no in-person solely Facebook church, and mixed masked worshippers and on-line worshippers wearing their pajamas. (Try saying that fast.)

And now, due to new Covid variants, we are back to parking lot church. Our area has a "significant" rate of transmission. So far, we're not requiring masks outdoors, and we're singing. However, depending on how the transmission rate improves or worsens, we could require masks and social distancing outdoors. We'll keep you posted.

In the meantime, please bring your own lawn chair and join us under the manse's glorious backyard oak trees to worship our glorious God. Who always keeps us on first.

WINE AND THE WORD

This group, which meets every other Monday evening at 6:30 p.m. is a little more than halfway through “Looking for God in Messy Places” by Jake Owensby.

That means it’s time to remind everyone again that anyone is welcome to suggest a book title and to attend the meetings. We’re meeting by Zoom for now, but hope to return to live meetings sometime soon, if the Covid variants allow.

Drinking wine is certainly not required, but participants have noticed it does add some fun to some of the comments!

Please let Pastor Robin know if you’re interested in joining.

Kids Sunday School
Got Questions about God??
Sunday Mornings
beginning September 12
at 10:00-10:30

Join us this year for some more fun weekly lessons. This year we will be watching some great videos, talking about them, and have some hands on learning activities and some longer term projects we will be working on. Remember the videos we did last year? This is by the same creator, but with some whole new material. We are going to be talking about all your BIG questions you have about God. As well as, learning about who God is, why we can trust God, and how we can respond to God's great love for us. We will start the year off doing lessons as Zoom meeting again, but will see if we can settle into some physical lessons soon later in year.

Church Office Hours

Pastor Robin’s office hours are:
Mondays and Wednesdays, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Church News

To everything there is a season... Longtime member and spectacular treasurer Jim Watson has moved to Grand Island, NY to be closer to his two kids. He served on session, and his “to the penny” accounting will be greatly missed.

The membership committee hosted a farewell party with cake, cookies, punch and coffee after church August 15. He was presented with a framed color photograph of the church and a number of cards. The choir brought most everyone to tears with “Till We Meet Again.” Bob Kellerman served as Master of Ceremonies.

Barb Griffith was nominated to fill Jim’s role, and the congregation voted approval during a congregation meeting after church Aug. 22. Best wishes to Barb with her new hat.

Ways to Connect

Audio recordings of worship services can be accessed any time of day Simply call the number 814-203-4173 and you can listen to a recording of that week’s service/sermon.

There are several ways you can connect to live virtual worship and recordings.

- Live Facebook worship services can be joined every Sunday at 11:00 a.m. by going to Facebook @firstpresbyterianchurchofharborcreek;
- Or by going to our website at hpresbyterian.org, scrolling down the home page and clicking on Facebook link to streaming worship service.

You can view past worship services by going to the website; hover mouse over “Worship & Music” tab and then click on Worship Service Videos.

Fantastic!

The early results are in for the Erie Gives Campaign.

Total donations to all of the 438 non-profits participating came to $7,019,728 with $10,752 individual/family donors.

Harborcreek Presbyterian Church received $8,190 in donations from 25 donors. These are early results so the figures may change. The church will also receive a portion of the non-designated funds according to designated percentages. We will know soon the final results and will share that with you.

SPECIAL DONATION OPTIONS

During the year you may want to make a special donation in memory (or in honor) of someone.

Following are the many options available:

Memorial Fund: This is a special account to collect funds to be used within the local church for worship and education related expenses. Monies can be earmarked for special projects and sometimes a plaque is dedicated to the memory of a loved one.

Endowment Fund: Generally donations (often memorials) can be directed to this Fund that is managed by the Presbyterian Church USA Foundation and their New Covenant Mutual Funds. Yearly dividends are split between missions and capital improvements for our church. As with most endowments, numerous options for bequests and investing are available.

Capital Improvement Fund (CIF/Building Fund): Donations directed to this account are used to make payments towards any loans (none at this time) and to provide ‘seed money’ for future projects. Recent ones were exterior painting and maintenance of the church and manse and a new bell tower roof scheduled for 2021.

General Fund: Of course donations are gratefully accepted any time to help support the general running of the church and its programs.

Feel free to contact any member of the Stewardship & Finance Committee with your questions. Current members are Dave Maille, Kevin Graff, Bob Kellerman, Linda Blum, Peggie Smith and Lisa Baumgardner.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to our annual Elmwood Gardens Auxiliary campaign. Because of your kind and thoughtful donations our residents will be treated to birthday recognition (cards and birthday cakes), Christmas gifts and simple pleasures that you and I take for granted. We are always looking for folks to volunteer their time and talents throughout the year to our residents at Elmwood. Believe me when I say your heart will be full once you see how pleased the residents are by our financial support, giving of time and show of compassion.

God Bless,
Sue Kellerman

Blessing Cupboard

Our outreach food ministry has been a blessing to many. We continue to collect non-perishable foods, such as, spaghetti sauce, canned vegetables & soups.

We have added a nice large cupboard to better display the food items for our guests to see and choose. Many, many thanks to Jeremy Stewart for researching, finding, assembling and installing the cupboard.

The remaining box contains non-food items such as cleaning supplies, toilet paper, paper towels, Kleenex and soap.

Many of you have been very generous in keeping the boxes well supplied. We hope you will continue to do so. Thanks for your support of this valuable project.

Cards for St. Jude Ranch

Just a reminder that I'm still collecting both new and used greeting cards to send to St. Jude's Ranch for children. Please leave the cards in tact and place them in the basket on the table in the old church entrance. The children who reside at St. Jude's ranch are there to break the cycle of abuse, abandonment and neglect. The cards they receive are recycled by the children and sold in the gift shop at St. Jude's and online. This recycled card program is an entrepreneurial run job training program teaching youth employment skills so they are prepared to be productive, wage earning citizens in the community when they leave. Currently they do not have cards to recycle, but I'm preparing a box to send soon.

Thank you for your past and continued support of this program,
Sue Kellerman

Recycle Recycle Recycle

We are still receiving donations for special mission projects.

- ♥ Aluminum Cans for the Dick Smith Fund to benefit community members with emergency needs.
- ♥ Cancelled Stamps to be sent to Canada to benefit a Leprosy Organization.
- ♥ Used Greeting Cards to be sent to St. Jude's Ranch for them to repurpose and sell in their gift shop and on their website.
- ♥ Travel Sized Personal Care Products to be given to the homeless at The Upper Room.

This is an easy way to make a big difference in the lives of people in our community and around the world! Just collect and drop off at church.

Session Notes...

Notes from June Session meeting:

Diane Bourne requests to have her son Daniel Robert Bourne baptized on July 11th, 2021 during the morning worship service. On a motion Session approved. Motion carried. Welcome Daniel.

CORRESPONDENCES: A letter was read concerning a Memorial gift in honor of Boyd and Monojeane Cockburn who were married in this church and longtime members.

PROPERTY: The tower project is scheduled to start during the 2nd week of July. A down payment on the bid from Joe B's carpeting for all 3 entrance levels of church was made. The committee has been working on bids for the Preschool "hepa" screening. The committee is also looking into purchasing choral risers

SPIRITUAL FORMATION: Vacation Bible School - Each Sunday night starting June 27th - August 1st (but not on July 4th) there will be a short evening program. Program will include craft, and activity (bonfire, movie night, mission night), and/or games and Bible story. This will be held outdoors only (no gathering if rain) for about an hour or so. Plus, will also have take-home kits with ideas and Bible story for the week.

WORSHIP/MEDIA MINISTRIES COMMITTEE: Communion will be provided during services on June 20th. A grape and cracker will be provided in a baggie. The committee has reported that the second screen in the sanctuary has been installed and would like to display sheet music of hymns on them during morning worship. Much discussion followed as they will not take away the ability to use actual hymnbooks or words in bulletins.

MEMBERSHIP CARE & DEVELOPMENT: The Deacons, with help from this committee, will be asked to provide an after service coffee hour for longest church members.

The cookbook is still being worked on as they compile the congregation's favorite recipes.

MISSION & OUTREACH: Preschool report: Good news that pre-registration for next year's morning classes are going well and also full.

About 40 people were fed on May30's at St Paul upper room.

LONG RANGE PLANNING: Bob Kellerman provided an update to Session with the results of their past 3 meetings. The number one concern was activities and programs for the youth of this church. The second issue involves the possibly partnering with the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church. Next meeting will be June 16th.

OLD BUSINESS: On a motion and second, Session agreed to approve a 4 member committee of Pastor Robin Cuneo, Brian Griffith, Dave Maille and Chris Thomas to meet with Emmanuel Presbyterian Church on June 16th.

Notes from July Session meeting:

CLERK'S REPORT: Mary Ellen reported on attending a meeting of the Inter-church Ministries of Erie County held on June 29th at the Elmwood Presbyterian Church. This program has been restarted with new forms and software. They have not asked for financial support from area churches at this time and will communicate when needed.

CORRESPONDENCES: the e-mails from General Presbyter, Anita Bernhardt, about the 2022 General Assembly to be held in Louisville, KY were reviewed.

TRAILBLAZER'S REPORT: The 2nd annual Family Funfest was June 19th despite the rain. A good time was had for those church families and area neighbors who attended. Volunteers were thanked with Barb providing the breakdown of expenses and concerns. The grand prize winner for the gift card was announced. Session decided to hold this project annually.

Ideas on how to keep the giving going and participation in filling these outreach boxes/cabinet was discussed.

Session Notes continues...

PROPERTY: Scott reported on working on the following:

- The tower project
- Stairway carpeting
- Screens for preschool rooms
- Purchasing choral risers
- Storm run-off project
- Possible new refrigerator for manse

SPIRITUAL FORMATION: With no one representing this committee on session, it was decided to invite Jennifer Wedzik to each meeting to report her ideas/issues. The clerk will invite her to attend the August and be first on the agenda.

VBS started end of June and will continue during July.

STEWARDSHIP/FINANCE: Financial accounts have all balanced.

- Highlights for the month: Erie Gives - Aug 10th
- A 50% deposit was made to Concord Plumbing for scheduled sewer repairs ($3,662.50).
- In July Waste Management will be raising our monthly bill from $72.99 to $85.15.
- Discussion was held explaining the need for “in and out accounts” and financial accountability. On a motion from committee, Session approved the June financial reports.

WORSHIP/MEDIA MINISTRIES COMMITTEE:

Pulpit supply for August 29th will be Brian Griffith and Chris will be finding someone to preach on Aug. 1st, while Pastor Robin is on vacation.

Communion will be provided during services on July 18th. A grape and cracker will be provided in a baggie.

MEMBERSHIP CARE & DEVELOPMENT: Cookbook reminder- Don't forget to send in your favorite recipes to Barb.

MISSION & OUTREACH: Next St. Paul's Upper Room will be Aug 29th.

The following donations from the Fun Fest were given:

- Ella Cochran Food Pantry
- Safe Net
- St Paul's Upper Room
- Veterans Miracle Network
- Mercy Center for Women

NOMINATING & TRAINING: An announcement concerning on-line Elder training was made.

PERSONNEL: Sue reported that she has been working with staff on their concerns.

A suggestion was made to discuss with Eileen about obtaining an additional custodian helper to lift heavy items as well as attending functions to help with after event cleanup. If so, her job description would be adjusted. Also, discussion was held about a possible new job/person to represent the church as an event planner.

LONG RANGE Planning: Ideas for “fun events” were presented:

- Ball games
- Member picnics
- Escape rooms

OLD BUSINESS: Session heard from the June 16th meeting of the 4 member committee of Pastor Robin Cuneo, Brian Griffith, Dave Maille and Chris Thomas that met with Emmanuel Presbyterian Church about sharing a pastor. They heard from Elmwood and Belle Valley Presbyterian churches about their experiences from their experience. Since Emmanuel does not have a current mission statement, they are working on one but when asked, ours is updated and ready to go.

NEW BUSINESS: Sue Kellerman will be taking re-orders for those who would like a red Harborcreek T-shirt.

Sincerely, Mary Ellen Flowers
Clerk of Session
