SUNG PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION HYMN no. 455

Listen to the word that God has spoken

Listen to the One who is close at hand

Listen to the voice that began creation

Listen even if you don't understand

SCRIPTURE READING Genesis 1:1-5

SILENCE

In these moments of silence, listen, look, and feel. Breathe. How do you experience the abundance of God's creation?

CALL TO WORSHIP

For the sweetness of soil from which we come and to which we will return

We give thanks with joy and wonder.

For the openness of air we breathe

We give thanks with joy and wonder.

For the release of water that bubbles and streams

We give thanks with joy and wonder.

For the surprise of fire that kindles and flames

We give thanks with joy and wonder.

The heavens declare the glory of God. The firmament proclaims God's handiwork. The plants and trees show God's presence.

Let us join with creation in praising God!

✠ HYMN no. 664 Morning Has Broken (verses 1-2)

Morning has broken like the first morning;

blackbird has spoken like the first bird.

Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning!

Praise for them, springing fresh from the Word!

Sweet the rain's new fall sunlight from heaven,

like the first dewfall on the first grass.

Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden,

sprung in completeness where God's feet pass.

SCRIPTURE READING Genesis 1:6-8

SILENCE

PRAYER FOR RECONCILIATION

God of life, you created us in your image to care for one another and for all creation. Forgive us for turning away from you, ignoring the needs of our neighbors and the cries of the earth. As the sun brings light and warmth to this earth, make us signs of your grace, through Christ, our light and life, we pray. (time for silent confession) Amen.

ASSURANCE OF GOD'S GRACE

In the waters of baptism, God pours out mercy and blessing. Know that you are forgiven, and be at peace as you share that blessing with others and care for this good earth, that all creation may declare God's glory. Amen!

✠ SUNG RESPONSE no. 664 Morning Has Broken (verse 3)

Mine is the sunlight! Mine is the morning, born of the one light Eden saw play!

Praise with elation; praise every morning,

God's recreation of the new day.

✠ PASSING OF THE PEACE

Since God has forgiven us in Christ, let us forgive one another. The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you. (Let us greet one another with expressions of Christ's peace.)

✠ DEDICATION OF SELF AND SUBSTANCE

Lord of the harvest,

we rejoice in the bounty of your world;

we thank you for the rich harvests it produces.

As we do so,

37 Let All Things Now Living

1 Let all things now liv - ing a song of thanks-giv - ing
 2 By law God en - forc - es, the stars in their cours - es, to God our Cre - a - tor tri - um - phant - ly raise;

 the sun in its or - bit o - be - dient - ly shine;

who fash - ioned and made us, pro - tect - ed and stayed us,

 We too should be voic - ing our love and re - joic - ing;

 with glad ad - o - ra - tion, a song let us raise,

Written for an easy-to-sing folk melody familiar in England as well as Wales, this 20th-century North American text bears many resemblances to both Psalm 148 and the traditional canticle Benedicite, omnia opera Domini (Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord).

till shad-ows have van-ish-ed, all fear-ful-ness ban-ish-ed, till all things now liv-ing u-nite in thanks-giv-ing:
 as for-ward we trav-el from light in-to light.
 to God in the high-est, ho-san-na and praise!

God Is So Good

658

1 God is so good; God is so good;
 2 God cares for me; God cares for me;
 3 God loves me so; God loves me so;
 4 God is so good; God is so good;

God is so good; God's so good to me.
 God cares for me; God's so good to me.
 God loves me so; God's so good to me.
 God is so good; God's so good to me.

The exact origins of this chorus celebrating God's providential care are not clear, but it seems to have arisen during the 1970s. Because the text changes so little, the slowly rising four-note pattern of the tune provides the primary source of energy within its five-note range.

We welcome Frank Miranda as our Worship Assistant this morning.

Thanks to Frank for this service!

We thank Meg Calone for her accompaniment on the drums during this morning's worship.

If you would like to learn more about the programs of this church, please call the church office (941-4271) or Membership Moderator Jean Hrbek, indicate your interest on the Friendship Roster, or speak to the pastor.

DEACONS perform a ministry of sympathy, witness, and service to the congregation and the larger community. If you or someone you know is in need, speak with any of the deacons assisting in worship today. The Deacons' Operation Care is always available to provide short-term assistance with meals, shopping, transportation, and childcare.

Today's Deacons are: Justin Kirik, Pat Siegal, Beth Senf and Bruce Lloyd

The 34 pink roses in worship are given in celebration of Ron Loveland's daughter, Sarah Loveland, & Zach Meyer's wedding and for all the breast cancer survivors in our congregation including Kate and my wife Vicky.

SOUP KITCHEN NEWS: We meet about 4:00 pm on two Mondays a month, we're usually finished by 6:30, and we welcome all volunteers! No experience is necessary! We will prepare and freeze 4 meals, which will then be used throughout the year at our weekly serving at St. Paul's church in Port Jefferson. If you'd like to join us or if you'd like more information please contact Barbara Curtis at 631-786-3112 or bacpj@optonline.net.

All Saints Service: Sunday, November 3, 5:30PM

This service offers an opportunity for those who have lost a loved one at any time to reflect and remember. We'll especially remember those in our SPC community who died in the past year.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN JOINING SETAUKET PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH?

Interested in learning more about us? There will be exploring membership classes on November 3rd and 10th at 11:00 in the Parlor. Please let Pastor Kate, Pastor Ashley or Jean Hrbek know if you are interested in attending.

THANK YOU to Don Richtberg and members of the House & Grounds and Membership Committees who were involved in planning, ordering, and installing the two new signs in from of the church and cemetery!

Update from the Adult Education Committee: We plan to start a new "small group" fellowship this fall. Small groups meetings (6-10 people) have the purpose of bringing people together to foster meaningful friendships. The participants choose the time, duration, frequency and place of meetings, which typically start with a daily devotional or other reading to begin conversation. There will be a planning meeting on Monday October 28 at 7:00pm at the home of Mae Hultin, with coffee, tea and dessert. Please call Mae (631-751-2275) for more information and directions.

Adult Education Classes

When: Sundays after church at 11 AM

Where: The Martha Jayne Room.

TODAY: A Rabbi's Insights on Death. Rabbi Stephen A. Karol, Rabbi Emeritus of Temple Isaiah in Stony Brook, will speak about his book, Finding Hope and Faith in the Face of Death, Insights of a Rabbi and Mourner. It is based on his experiences throughout his forty-year career as a rabbi in helping his congregants deal with the emotions and thoughts that occur when a loved one dies.

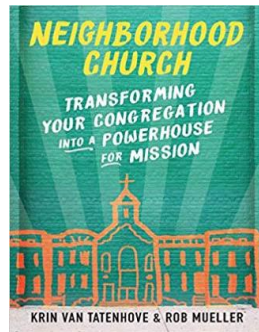

November 3: Music for Everyone. Daniel's Music Foundation is a non-profit organization based in East Harlem that empowers individuals with developmental and physical disabilities through music. Hear from the Trush Family and a member of the management team, Carla Sullivan, as they share the compelling story of how turning tragedy into empowerment became the springboard for the future of the foundation. A focus that uses social action and awareness to create the opportunity for people of all abilities to engage and appreciate each other while experiencing the joy of music together. The presentation captures how the Trush family's story was the inspiration for the foundation, followed by discussion on the "disability universe", a look into the challenges that individuals with disabilities face.

SPC Book Club. Our book club will meet Thursday, October 24, at 7:30 in the church parlor. Our selection for this month is Killers of the Flower Moon by David Gran. Reading like a detective story, it tells the narrative of the Osage Murders and the Birth of the FBI. The New York Times quote, "It's confident, fluid in its dynamics, light on its feet...The crime story it tells is appalling, and stocked with authentic heroes and villains. Come and be a part of this many layered mystery."

Open Door Exchange Volunteer Days: Please join us at our next ODE Volunteer Day, October 26th, and our November days, November 9th & November 23rd.

SMITHTOWN/SETAUKET PRESBYTERIAN BRIDGE GROUP invites you to join us for a fun night of bridge the third Saturday of each month at 7pm. Individuals and new bridge players welcome. For more information, please contact Bethany Ehrlich at 631-689-3027 or Stephen Ehrlich at Sehrlich@kpmg.com.

You are Invited to a Congregation-Wide Book Study! As we move through this interim period at SPC, our session is reading together the book Neighborhood Church: Transforming Your Congregation Into a Powerhouse for Mission by Krin Van Tatenhove and Rob Mueller. This book was selected by the current moderators of the Presbyterian Church (USA) as the denomination-wide recommended reading for 2019. If you'd like a copy of the book, please email or call the church. The Session is currently reading the Introduction and Chapters 1 & 2. Videos and conversation starters are already on our SPC Facebook group. You can join the group by searching for the "Setauket Presbyterian Church" closed group in Facebook and asking to join.

MISSION TRIP: We are organizing a trip to the Mexican border through the organization Frontera de Cristo. This is a Presbyterian Border ministry located in the sister cities of Agra Prieta, Sonora and Douglas, Arizona. Frontera de Cristo offers a number of opportunities for groups to be involved in the life of the ministry of the borderlands. Some of the experiences we will have will be: walk the steps of a migrant through the desert, prayer vigil for the immigrants, visit health clinic of the migrants, talk with DHS and much more. There will be an informational meeting on Monday, October 28th, at 7PM in the SPC Parlor.

The Children's Library is open on Sunday mornings from 9:00 to 11:00 am. Do come in to find that perfect book for holiday reading! We have books for both children and adults. You may leave them in the basket located outside of the Children's Library.

DON'T SING? RING! Want to make music, but saving your vocalizations for the shower? Consider joining SPC's Handbell Ensemble! We meet on Fridays at 7:30-8:30 PM and enjoy making music on a set of exquisite Schulmerich handbells. The Handbell Choir performs 4 times per year, including the 11 PM service on Christmas Eve. We will be singing an eclectic array of works by Bach, Mozart, Vivaldi, Händel, Fauré, Gjielo, Palestrina, Copland, Parker, Hogan, Hayes, The Gaithers, and many, many more!

Rehearsals take place on Thursday evenings from 7-9 PM & on Sundays at 8:30 AM preceding the 9:30 AM service. All are welcome! Note: If you would like to join, but can only attend one of the rehearsals, or if you would like to join for special services and holidays, please let us know. Childcare is available during the Sunday rehearsal and service!

MUSIC FOR CHILDREN AND TEENS AT SPC

Does your child or teen love music? We would love to welcome them to our Children's Choir! We meet from 11-11:30 AM on Sundays. Children ages 3+ are welcome to join us!

Using the Royal School of Church Music (RSCM) training program, children learn the fundamentals of music theory, church music history, and singing technique and perform beloved hymns, sacred songs, and Spirituals in an age-appropriate and fun way. Children also learn how to ring handbells and chimes, play percussion instruments, and enjoy solo opportunities. Teens at SPC have the option of joining the adult choir or singing in the children's choir. We are blessed to have a number of excellent young instrumentalists in the congregation, and child and teen players who wish to perform as an ensemble and/or as soloists should contact us!

Can you look in your drawers for any used bras that you no longer wear? Any kind of bra: sports, maternity, nursing, training, lacy and more. Your efforts will help Support the Girls and countless homeless women. To learn more, check out www.isupportthegirls.org or check them out on Facebook, Instagram or Twitter.
