

WELCOME

- A Warm and Cordial Welcome is extended to all who worship with us today! We hope that in this service you will encounter the living Christ and experience the warmth of our caring community of faith. Please take a moment to sign our friendship pad when it is passed to you, so that members and guests may greet one another after the service.
- Guests, if you are in search of a church home, we invite you to consider becoming a part of our community of faith here at Corbin Presbyterian Church. Please indicate your interest on the friendship pad, speaking to the Pastor, or by contacting the church office at 606-528-1444 or churchoffice@corbinpres.org
- Children are always welcome in worship! Children's worship bulletins, clip boards and crayons are available on the table just outside the sanctuary for use by children and the adults who worship with them. During worship, children are invited to join the Pastor on the chancel steps for Young Disciples Time. There is also a special Prayground just for them at the rear of the sanctuary where they may continue to interact with the Scriptures and theme of worship for the day.

Joys, Concerns, and Announcements

Opening Prayer

*Call to Worship From Psalm 46:1-2; 9-11

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
Therefore, we will not fear, though the earth should change,
though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea;
Come, behold the words of the Lord;
See what desolations he has brought on the earth.
He makes wars to cease to the ends of the earth;
He breaks the bow, and shatters the spear;
He burns the shields with fire.
“Be still, and know that I am God!”
I am exalted among the nations, I am exalted in the earth.”
The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.
Come, let us worship God.

*Hymn #191

God Is Our Refuge and Our Strength

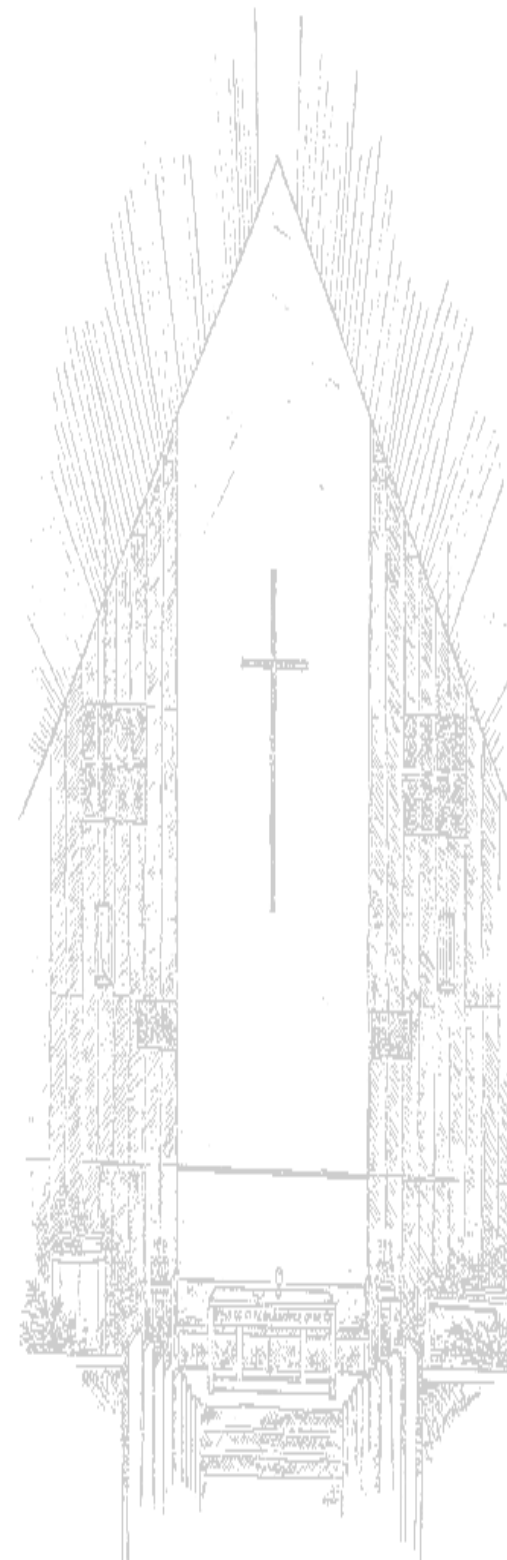

WINCHESTER OLD

*Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (unison)

God of creation, while you are good and just in all your ways, humanity is capable of such evil. While we were created in your image, that image is distorted by sin. Stories in scriptures and in the news remind us of that truth all the time. For the moments when we choose violence over peace, exclusion over inclusion, and fear over hope—forgive us. When we choose pride over what is right, and comfort over justice—show us mercy. And when we numb our pain instead of leaning into empathy—renew us.
(Silent Confession)

Gracious God, unravel us, for we long to be changed. We long to reflect your love, mercy, and justice shown in Jesus Christ our Lord, in whose name we pray. Amen.

“God, make the door of this place of worship wide enough to receive all who need human love, friendship and the Father's care; narrow enough to shut out all pride, envy and hatred; and smooth enough for the feet of little children.”

Please stand as you are able.*

The Peace

As those who have been forgiven:

Lead a life worthy of your calling—with humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Signs of peace may be shared with those near you.

Notice the round tapestry that is taking shape in the front of the sanctuary. The torn pieces of fabric represent our hopes and dreams unraveled, the way life and plans sometimes disintegrate under our feet, leaving us scrambling for the footing God is leading us toward. Throughout this worship series, we will take the fabric strips and weave them into the tapestry to remind us of the ways God is present in our moments of unraveling as well as the promise that God hems us in—behind and before. When our plans fall apart, may God weave us together with love. You are invited to write your prayers on the ribbons or fabric strips found in the basket or on the table in the fellowship hall. They will be woven into the tapestry each week.*
