
We would like to invite you to be a part of our mission of sharing the love of God through any one of the following ministries:

Receiving new members and welcoming them into the life of the church.

Missionary Support

Each year we support a specific overseas missionary or missionary team. This is done through financial donations and communications.

Opportunities to deepen relationships within the Faith Family

Cradle Roll

Helping parents and their newly baptized child in their faith journey.

Servants of Prayer and Healing

Church members are trained to visit, pray with and share faith with those who are ill.

Faith Meal Ministry

Volunteers prepare and deliver meals to those who have been recently hospitalized, are dealing with an illness, have lost a loved one or have just welcomed a new baby.

Electronic Communications

Enhancing communications through such things as email and Facebook.

Hospitality

Developing ways to make visitors feel welcome.

How can you help?

- Serve on a committee.
 - Help with Cradle Roll.
 - Be willing to pray and visit with someone who is ill.
 - Share a meal.
 - Sign up for a one-month sponsorship of our missionary.

Who do I contact?

You can contact the church office by phone (563/285-4501) or email us at faitheldridge@netins.net.

Evangelism
Committee

“We are a church that shares the good news of God’s love.”

Through activities within our church family we develop and strengthen relationships within our congregation, neighborhood and community. We strive to do this through membership outreach and communication.
