THE ST. JOHN'S PRAYER

Almighty and ever living God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth, hear our prayers for St. John's, Broad Creek. Strengthen the faithful, arouse the careless, restore the penitent, draw the seekers, and increase our numbers. Grant us all things necessary for our common life, and bring us all to be of one heart and mind within your Holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

VISION STATEMENT

St. John's will continue to grow as a positive source of comfort and love in the lives of our diverse parish family. The surrounding community will come to know us as a welcoming, inclusive shelter in a world of uncertainty, and a source of help in crisis.

MISSION STATEMENT

St. John's Church is an inclusive community of faithful believers and earnest seekers, where worship is the foundation of our common life, and where the Holy Spirit moves us to gather and thrive as a loving extended family while reaching out to serve our neighbors with the Good News of God's Love.

How can a stranger tell you are a Christian?

The Rev. Sarah Dadds Oldersol

Almighty God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ is the light of the world: Grant that your people, illumined by your Word and Sacraments, may shine with the radiance of Christ's glory, that he may be known, worshiped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for the Second Sunday after the Epiphany BCP 215

The Feast of the Epiphany is always celebrated on January 6th – marking the end of the Christmas season (The 12 Days of Christmas!). At St. John's we are "transferring" the feast and celebrating Epiphany on Sunday, January 5. We will have one service at 10 a.m. followed by a potluck in Bayne Hall. Please celebrate with us and bring a dish to share!

Early Christians chose this day to celebrate the "manifestations" or "epiphanies" of Jesus' divinity. The Feast of the Epiphany is the beginning of the season of Epiphany – the season runs from January 6 until the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday. The length of the season includes four to nine Sundays depending on the date of Easter. The gospel stories of this season describe various events that manifest the divinity of Jesus. The coming of the Magi (the Three Kings) is celebrated on the Feast of the Epiphany. The Baptism of our Lord is observed on the Sunday after the Epiphany. The gospels for the other Sundays in the season include the wedding at Cana, the calling of the disciples, and various miracles and teachings of Jesus. The last Sunday of the Epiphany (this year February 23) is always devoted to the story of the Transfiguration.

All the stories of how Jesus is revealed as God among us are an invitation for us to think about the ways that God is revealed in our lives. If someone were to "watch your life" would they be able to tell that you are a Christian by the way you treat other people and creation? Do they know we are Christians by our love?

Epiphany is the time of year when our parish intentionally reviews its mission and ministry. Both the Diocesan Convention and our Annual Meeting take place during the season of Epiphany. How has God's presence been made known in the world through St. John's? The Diocese of Washington? Both your parish and your diocese depend on your participation to reveal God to others!

The Episcopal Diocese of Washington Diocesan Convention will be on January 25. You can learn more about the work of Diocesan Convention at the following link: <https://www.edow.org/about/diocesan-governance/pre-convention-forum>

Our Presiding Bishop, The Most Reverend Michael Curry, will be our guest preacher at convention and Bishop Curry will also be leading worship and preaching at a "revival" event on Sunday, January 26. To learn more about the revival and to request free tickets to that event, visit our diocesan website at: <https://www.edow.org/>

Martin Luther King Jr. was one of America's most influential civil rights activists. His passionate, but non-violent protests, helped to raise awareness of racial inequalities in America, leading to significant political change. Martin Luther King was also an eloquent orator who captured the imagination and hearts of people, both black and white.

His Early Life

Martin Luther King, Jr. was born in Atlanta on 15 January 1929. Both his father and grandfather were pastors in an African-American Baptist church. M. Luther King attended Morehouse College in Atlanta, (segregated schooling) and then went to study at Crozer Theological Seminary in Pennsylvania and Boston University. During his time at University Martin Luther King became aware of the vast inequality and injustice faced by black Americans; in particular, he was influenced by Gandhi's philosophy of non-violent protest. The philosophy of Gandhi tied in with the teachings of his Baptist faith. At the age of 24, King married Coretta Scott, a beautiful and talented young woman. After getting married, King became a pastor at Dexter Avenue Baptist Church in Montgomery, Alabama.

Montgomery Bus Boycott

A turning point in the life of Martin Luther King was the Montgomery Bus Boycott which he helped to promote. His boycott also became a turning point in the civil rights struggle – attracting national press for the cause.

It began in innocuous circumstances on 5 December 1955. Rosa Parks, a civil rights activist, refused to give up her seat – she was sitting in a white-only area. This broke the strict segregation of coloured and white people on the Montgomery buses. The bus company refused to back down and so Martin Luther King helped to organise a strike where coloured people refused to use any of the city buses. The boycott lasted for several months, the issue was then brought to the Supreme Court who declared the segregation was unconstitutional.

Civil Rights Movement

After the success of the Montgomery bus boycott, King and other ministers founded the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). This proved to be a nucleus for the growing civil rights movement. Later there would be arguments about the best approach to take. In particular, the 1960s saw the rise of the Black power movement, epitomised by Malcolm X and other black nationalist groups. However, King always remained committed to the ideals of non-violent struggle.

Speeches of Martin Luther King Jr.

Martin Luther King was an inspirational and influential speaker; he had the capacity to move and uplift his audiences. In particular, he could offer a vision of hope. He captured the injustice of the time but also felt that this injustice was like a passing cloud. King frequently made references to God, the Bible and his Christian Faith.

"And this is what Jesus means when he said: 'How is it that you can see the mote in your brother's eye and not see the beam in your own eye?' Or to put it in Moffatt's translation: 'How is it that you see the splinter in your brother's eye and fail to see the plank in your own eye?' And this is one of the tragedies of human nature. So we begin to love our enemies and love those persons that hate us whether in collective life or individual life by looking at ourselves."

Honoring Matthew Shepard—A Celebration and Plaque Dedication

December 2, 2019

The bronze plaque that honors Matthew Shepard was installed in St. Joseph's Chapel to mark his final resting place. Dennis and Judy Shepard helped install a memorial plaque to their son, Matthew, whose 1998 death in a violent anti-gay crime electrified the modern LGBTQ movement. It includes words from Bishop Gene Robinson's homily last year: "Matt, rest gently in this place. You are home safe now." It mirrors a plaque dedicated to human rights advocate Helen Keller, who lies nearby.

Like Helen Keller, Matthew dreamed and worked for a world full of love and compassion. This memorial plaque was made possible through a global crowd-funding initiative that raised all funds necessary within three weeks.

You can watch the dedication ceremony at cathedral/matthewshepard

A New year - A New Topic.

Every month, ONE page will be dedicated to the travel photos you want to share.

Email only high resolution photos (jpgs) to bsbrevard@yahoo.com by the deadline date for the newsletter. Don't send paper copies or flash drives. Only the name(s) of who provided the photos and the name of the destination will be listed. NOT listed will be captions, specific titles, addresses, and narratives.

IT'S A BEAUTIFUL WORLD!

Enjoy a different destination every month: Antigua, Guatemala

Antigua is a small city surrounded by volcanoes in southern Guatemala. It's renowned for its Spanish colonial buildings, many of them restored following a 1773 earthquake that ended Antigua's 200-year reign as Guatemala's colonial capital. Notable architectural examples include baroque La Merced church. It's an integral part of the city's famous Semana Santa, a holy week with parades and rituals.

Just like every year, Pastor Sarah outdid herself. The Christmas Party at the Rectory is an event not to miss. She continues to bless us with her kindness, love, wisdom, humour, and strength. We wish her and her loved one's peace, health, happiness, and prosperity. Happy New Year!

From Bishop Mariani

DEAR FRIENDS OF THE DIOCESE OF WASHINGTON,

I am thrilled to call our diocese together for a weekend of spiritual rededication and renewal January 24-26, 2020, culminating in a public revival with Presiding Bishop Michael Curry on Sunday, January 26, at 2 p.m. at the Entertainment and Sports Arena in Washington, D.C. The theme for the weekend and for the revival itself is More Jesus: More Love, a reminder that only as we draw closer to Jesus can we grow in our capacity to love as Jesus loves. The revival is not for ourselves alone, but for those we will invite to join us for a service of uplifting music, personal testimony, the Presiding Bishop's word to us, and Holy Eucharist. Read more online

CALLING ALL VOLUNTEERS! In preparation for the More Jesus, More Love Revival on Sunday, January 26, 2020, we seek volunteers to serve in a variety of critical roles. We're looking for folks at all levels of experience who are excited, motivated team players willing to serve in the months leading up to and on the day of the event. Sign up to volunteer Learn more about the More, Jesus, More Love Revival weekend events Questions?

MONEY MATTERS

Your St. John's Finance Committee is made up of volunteers who are responsible of planning, advising, executing, and reporting of financial information and processes benefitting St. John's. We meet on the second Thursday each month. All parish members are invited to any meeting and are encouraged to join us. Free coffee and snacks at every meeting. For questions, call ALAN at 301.292.3490.

BARELY SELF-SUSTAINING? BRING FINANCES UP TO PAR?

How? Raise your pledge. Have an idea for fundraising? Great - step up - take charge - do it.

The FOOD PANTRY has been experiencing a higher volume of clients these recent weeks. While the Pantry can purchase most food items from the DC Food Bank, there are some necessary items that are not available.

The St. John's Women's Ministry is collecting the following items: paper towels, toilet paper, toothpaste, tooth brushes, bars of soap, and deodorant.

We are asking the Parish to support this project by generously filling the baskets in the back of the church and in Bayne Hall. THANK YOU!

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY, HEALTHY NEW YEAR

from aboard the Vision of the Sea - somewhere on the Atlantic Ocean. While Rudy and I had a great time cruising - we missed you all very much.

WISHING YOU PEACE

RECYCLE FOR ST. JOHN'S

- DON'T throw away scrap metal (pipes, gutters, screens, aluminum siding, doors, etc.)!
- DON'T let contractors take away old material after having new gutters, siding, etc. installed!

Call Kathy Mierke at 301.292.3624 for pick up.

- Usual recycling pick-up is on Mondays and handled by Kathy and Jim.
- ALL METAL, INCLUDING COPPER, ALUMINUM, BRASS, AND IRON, WILL BE COLLECTED.
- All recycled material will be sold and all proceeds given to St. John's. Questions? Call Kathy: 301.292.3624.

Starting with the January 2021 newsletter, "Selfie Time With Sarah" will be replaced by an op ed, called "Let's Be Frank". I will introduce a statement which is my honest opinion on things that happen in the news, stuff that we think about now and then, or something I may have seen. The article will be short. Sometimes you may agree - sometimes you may not. My intent is to provide you with some "food for thought". Nothing too serious. And yes - YOU are invited to "BE FRANK" as well. Between 250 and 500 words max, submitted to me via email at bsbrevard@yahoo.com.

NO MORE NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS!

Let's face it — it's pretty pointless waiting all year to decide on one or two things that you kinda, sorta want to stop doing/start doing, but that you know full well you're not really committed to following through with anyway.

Yes - I want to go on a diet, read more books, and learn something new - but does this count: I rode an ATV Big Wheeler this summer = new (it scared the ... out of me); I got my act together and ordered the book we are reading in book club; and YES - I diet - but - I will never be size 2 - hell, I will not be size 6. I am who I am. My blood pressure and cholesterol are great, and I am NOT diabetic - thank you for asking.

I will join a gym again ... but for how long - I think I'll wait until I can get in for free as a senior. Why? I hate belonging to clubs - was never a follower - can't stand cute exercise outfits that only look good on ladies who are already slim and trim. When I sweat, I don't want clingy clothes that really MARK the spot - I want to wear baggy, worn out old sweat clothes. And - I don't want to listen to the grunts of the serious exercisers who push the iron to the limit. That's it.

I will interact more with my neighbors. Oh, well, that's a good one ... I like modern art, splash paint, watch drag queens, listen to loud music. I like crazy people (I seem to attract them). So that makes for good conversation with my neighbors - hmmmmmm, but ok - I'll try.

I'll let my hair go all grey. Ok, I am not there yet, but when will I be? People look at you different when your hair is grey unless you have that certain beautifully blessed look - and so I reach for hair color on sale - one more time:)

So here it is: Living a full life isn't about making some woolly, half-hearted decisions that don't really mean anything.

But here is what I can do: I can try to be a better person! Simple. Difficult. Worth trying.

HEAVENLY FATHER, GIVER OF LIFE AND HEALTH: Comfort and relieve your sick servants, and give your power of healing to those who Minister to their needs, that those for whom our prayers are offered may be strengthened in their weakness and have confidence in your loving care; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Pray for Archbishop of Canterbury: Justin; Presiding Bishop: Michael; Bishop of Washington: Mariann; Rector: Sarah

Pray for the President, the Armed Forces of the United States and our Allies, and for the people and emergent leaders of Iraq, Afghanistan, Egypt, Libya, and all the countries in the world that are in turmoil, as well as for our enemies and those who wish us ill. Pray for our Parish, especially our Staff, our Vestry and its Officers, and our Ministries and Committees.

The following names will be prayed for aloud during the Sunday Service, and during the week in our daily prayers. They will remain on the prayer list until December 31, 2019. If you want them on the long term list, please call the church office.

Pray for Birgitt, Faith, Margaret, Carl, Diane, Rachad, Lois, Erica, Autumn, Elizabeth, Lynn, Geneva, Catherine, Jim, Joan, Claudia, Claudette, and Karl.
