We Approach God

Sharing of Joys & Concerns

Prelude: "The Myrrhbearers" -Martha Gallagher, harpist

Votum, Sentences, and Salutation

Call to Worship

One: This day is like every other day.

All: Alarm clocks beeped. Covers were removed.

Coffee was brewed. Weary bodies came to life.

One: And yet this day, is like no other day—

All: For the sun rose, and we knew it was a miracle.

The tomb was empty, and they knew it was love.

One: So again and again we say—

All: The longest night is over.

Death has lost its sting.

Jesus is among us.

Alleluia! Amen.

One: Again and again and again—

All: Alleluia! Amen.

Gathering Hymn: Jesus Christ Is Risen Today

Invitation to Confession

Prayer of Confession & Words of Forgiveness:

One: Beloved Community, before God and before you, my family, I confess:

I have seen the sun rise and withheld my praise.

I have seen my neighbor suffer and withheld my aid.

I have seen love extended and chosen to walk away.

I have seen divisions deepen and managed to remain unfazed.

All: We hear you. We see you. You are forgiven.

God's love is like the sun.

No matter how lost we are in the night,

Day after day, the light will find you.

Rest easy. You are held in God's warmth.

One: Thanks be to God. Amen.

All: Now we must pray.

Beloved friend, before God and before each other, we confess:

We have seen the sun rise and withheld our praise.

We have seen our neighbors suffer and have withheld our aid.

We have seen love extended and chosen to walk away.

We have seen divisions deepen and managed to remain unfazed.

One: I hear you. I see you. You are forgiven.

God's love is like the sun.

No matter how lost we are in the night,

Day after day, the light will find you.
Rest easy. You are held in God's warmth.
All: Thanks be to God. Alleluia, amen.

Children's Message

Sermon: "Again & Again, The Sun Rises"

We Respond to God's Word

Song of Response: Morning Has Broken

Affirmation of Faith (unison):

We know the fear of the upper room.
We know the feeling of hard days and long nights.
We know the grief of the tomb,
And the particular ache of saying goodbye.
We know the pain of Good Friday,
And we know the darkness before dawn.
And still,
And still,
We believe.
We believe that again and again,
The sun will rise.
Again and again,
God will draw near.
Again and again,
We will march toward justice.
Again and again,
The tomb will be empty.
Again and again,
Love will win.
Again and again,
God will lead the church.
Again and again,
And again and again,
We will be loved.
The journey will not be perfect.

We will need to rise before dawn.
We will need angels along the way.
But again and again,
The sun will rise.
We believe. Amen.

Passing of the Peace (stretch your hands toward your screen if you're on video, praying God's peace on the assembly.)

Communion Liturgy

The Meaning of the Sacrament

Beloved in the Lord Jesus Christ, the holy Supper which we are about to celebrate is a feast of remembrance, of communion, and of hope.

We come in remembrance that our Lord Jesus Christ was sent of the Father into the world to assume our flesh and blood and to fulfill for us all obedience to the divine law, even to the bitter and shameful death of the cross.
By his death, resurrection, and ascension he established a new and eternal covenant of grace and reconciliation that we might be accepted of God and never be forsaken by him.

We come to have communion with this same Christ who has promised to be with us always, even to the end of the world.
In the breaking of the bread he makes himself known to us as the true heavenly Bread that strengthens us unto life eternal.
In the cup of blessing he comes to us as the Vine in whom we must abide if we are to bear fruit.

We come in hope,
believing that this bread and this cup are a pledge and foretaste of the feast of love of which we shall partake when his kingdom has fully come, when with unveiled face we shall behold him,

made like unto him in his glory.

Since by his death, resurrection, and ascension Christ has obtained for us the life-giving Spirit who unites us all in one body, so are we to receive this Supper in true love, mindful of the communion of saints.

Invitation

The first time Jesus sat down to this meal, among those gathered there were one who would doubt him, one who would deny him, one who would betray him, and they would all leave him alone before that night was over – and he knew it. Still, he sat down and ate with them. If he ate with them, surely he's ready to eat with us. You don't have to be perfect. You don't have to be sure. You don't have to be a member of this church. You don't have to be a saint. All you have to be to eat at this table is hungry.

God will do the rest.

Communion Prayer

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts!

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise

Holy and right it is, and our joyful duty to give thanks to you at all times and in all places, O Lord our Creator, almighty and everlasting God! You created heaven with all its hosts and the earth with all its plenty. You have given us life and being, and preserve us by your providence. But you have shown us the fullness of your love in sending into the world your Son, Jesus Christ, the eternal Word, made flesh for us and for our salvation. For the precious gift of this mighty Savior who has reconciled us to you we praise and bless you, O God. With your whole Church on earth and with all the company of heaven we worship and adore your glorious name.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest!

Most righteous God, we remember in this Supper the perfect sacrifice offered once on the cross by our Lord Jesus Christ for the sin of the whole world. In the joy of his resurrection and in expectation of his coming again, we offer ourselves to you as holy and living sacrifices. Together we proclaim the mystery of the faith:

Christ has died! Christ is risen! Christ will come again!

Send your Holy Spirit upon us, we pray, that the bread which we break and the cup which we bless may be to us the communion of the body and blood of Christ. Grant that, being joined together in him, we may attain to the unity of the faith and grow up in all things into Christ our Lord. And as this grain has been gathered from many fields into one loaf, and these grapes from many hills into one cup, grant, O Lord, that your whole Church may soon be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

Communion

The Lord Jesus, the same night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, “Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you:
do this in remembrance of me.”

After the same manner also, he took the cup when they had supped, saying, “This cup is the new testament in my blood:
this do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.”
We receive the elements.

Thanksgiving after Communion

(based on Psalm 103)

Brothers and sisters, since the Lord has now fed us at his Table, let us praise God’s holy name with heartfelt thanksgiving!

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and all that is within me, bless God’s holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and do not forget all God’s benefits—who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases,

who redeems your life from the Pit,
who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy.

The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

God does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities.

As a father has compassion for his children,
so the Lord has compassion for those who fear God, who did not spare his own Son,
but gave him up for us all,

and will also give us all things with him.

Therefore shall my mouth and heart show forth the praise of the Lord, from this time forth forevermore. Amen.

Prayers of Intercession & The Lord's Prayer

Our time of prayer concludes with the Lord's Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever. Amen.

Announcements

Lent & Easter Prayer Wall: A beautiful prayer wall art project has been installed in front of the sanctuary for us to weave together our prayers as a community. Woven together, our prayers form the shape of an ampersand, an ancient symbol that, used here, represents God's holy "and." We invite you to come to the sanctuary at any time and add your prayers to our wall, as many prayers as you need, returning as often as you wish. During Lent, we wove black ribbons into the ampersand shape; during Eastertide, we will add our prayers on yellow and gold ribbons to the white space around the ampersand. Prayer strips and a pen are available by the prayer wall. On a prayer strip, write a word or phrase to represent your prayer to God. Then weave it into the white space around the ampersand. Many thanks to Jen Moore Smith and Andrew Smith for crafting and installing our prayer wall!
